MAN IN THE NEWS: Mr. Dawson

An active politician, Mr. Dawson is always in the forefront of communal issues. A prominent Opposition member who resents authority, he fights for his non-beliefs, freedom from religion.

Mr. Dawson thrives on controversy. A practical realist who doesn't trust miracles, Mr. Dawson worries about tomorrow's income and sustenance. Anything else is unrealistic pie-in-the-sky.

Close to the center of power in Rubensburg, Dawson is active in the Korach political, expected to win by a landslide.

His savings plans turned out rotten, so financially ruined Dawson is as good as dead. But he still has a long political career ahead.

A strong law-and-order advocate, Dawson supports the Police Department.

When an officer was killed in the line of duty, Mr. Dawson dutifully informed the authorities.

He is organizing a protest rally at the end of this week against clerics whose interference hurts the working class.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

LAW AND ORDER!

Dear Editor,

We express shock and grief over this week's death of a police officer. We demand the that perpetrator be punished to the full extent of the law.

Words can kill. These 'religious' charlatans criticize a mere hand raising gesture, while they get away with murder. With contempt for our law officers, how dare they judge others? Let the public be informed, and let our government know!

LAST STRAW!

Dear Editor,

As Egyptians of Hebrew descent who build our country and work within the system, we are greatly embarrassed by Moses' misguided stick-it-to-em tactics.

His futile "Redemption" hopes for a "Jewish Nation" are wishful thinking.

How naïve to think that his "Let my people go" slogan can change the course of history.

Moses' anti-government agitation makes matters worse. In the end, the workers suffer the consequences.

This is the last straw!
