מי מנה¹

דף סז,א

“Bringing the Infinite into the Finite”

Parshas Balak describes the story of Bilam, including Bilam’s intended curses, which Hashem transformed into blessings. One of the curses was as follows: (Bamidbar 23:10)

א Chapter 1:

"מי מנה עפר יעקב, ומספר את רובע ישראל תמות נפשי מות ישרים ותהי אחריתי כמהו:"² (פרשתנו כג, י):

“Who can count the dirt of Yaakov, or the number of one-fourth of Yisrael? May my רבוע soul die like the upright people and may my end be like theirs!”

This blessing (that Hashem said through Bilam) means that ‘One cannot count the Jewish people, since they will be numerous like the dust.’ However, we need to understand two points:

- 1- Why does it say that there is a number for the “one-fourth of Yisrael,” implying that there is a limited number of Jews, if the verse said previously that the Jewish People cannot be counted, implying that they have no number?

- 2- What is the idea of saying, “Or the number of רִבַּע-one fourth of Yisrael?” What is the significance of “one fourth” in terms of counting the Jewish People?

The Alter Rebbe will begin to analyze the above verse and explain these questions:

"רִבַּע" יֵשׁ בוּ ב' פִּירוּשִׁים: פִּירוּשׁ אֶחָד - חֶלֶק רְבִיעִית, וְהַב' - מְלֶשֶׁן אַרְבָּעָה. כִּי הִנֵּה בְּבַחֲיַנֵּת יִשְׂרָאֵל יֵשׁ ד' בְּחִינוֹת:

The word "רִבַּע" (related to the word אַרְבַּע-four) has two possible explanations: One explanation is that it means “one fourth.” The second explanation is that it means “a total of four.” To understand the significance of the number four in counting the Jewish People, we need to explain that there are four main aspects of the Jewish person, as will be clarified later.

וְהֶעֱנִין, דְּכָתִיב (ישעיה מג, ז): " כל הַנִּקְרָא בְּשֵׁמִי וְלִכְבוֹדִי בְּרָאתִיו, יִצְרַתִּיו, אֶף עָשִׂיתִיו", וְהֵם בְּחִינוֹת: מַחְשָׁבָה, דִּיבוּר וּמַעֲשֵׂה:

The idea is, as follows: It is written (Yeshaya 43:7), “Everything that is called by My Name and exists for My Glory, I have created it, formed it, and also made it.” These three stages (created, formed, made) correspond to the three aspects of thought, speech, and action.

"בְּרָאתִיו" הוּא בְּחִינַת מַחְשָׁבָה, שֶׁהוּא יֵשׁ-מֵאֵין.

“I have created it” is the aspect of thought, which is similar to creation of something from nothing comparable, just like thought comes from the subconscious, which is not comparable to conscious thought.

"יִצְרַתִּיו" הוּא בְּחִינַת הַדִּיבוּר, שֶׁהוּא בְּחִינַת צוּרָה שְׂמֻצִיר הָאוֹתִיּוֹת שֶׁבְּמַחְשָׁבָה.

“I have formed it,” is the aspect of speech, which is when a form is applied to the letters of thought, causing the letters of thought to take on a more defined form.

"אף עשיתיו" - בחינת המעשה. כתיב בלשון "אף", לפי שהמעשה - דבר נפרד בפני עצמו, שאינו כערך הדיבור נגד המחשבה שמצייר האותיות המחשבה ממש, כי מה שחושב הוא מדבר, מה שאין כן ענין עשייה גשמיות הוא ענין בפני עצמו.

"I have also made it," is the aspect of action. The verse uses the word "אף-also" in terms of action, since action becomes separate from the person's thought and speech. It is unlike how speech compares to thought, where it simply forms the actual letters of thought into speech, since what a person thinks is what he says. This is not the case with physical action, which becomes its own expression of the person without a direct link showing its connection to what the person is thinking.

By looking at what someone does, we cannot necessarily know what that person is thinking or feeling, whereas, by hearing his words, we can become aware of what he was thinking, since speech is a revelation of inner thoughts.

והנה יש עוד בחינה רביעית שלמעלה מהשלושה בחינות הנ"ל - מחשבה, דיבור, ומעשה - ונרמז במלת "אף". כי "אף" הוא לשון ריבוי, לרבות עוד דבר שאינו מפורש כאן, והוא הדבר שלמעלה מהשלושה בחינות הללו, וגבוה ונעלה מהם.

Now, there is another "fourth" aspect, which is higher than the three aspects mentioned previously: thought, speech, and action, and is hinted to in the word "אף-also." This is because the word "אף-also" is used to include something else not mentioned explicitly in the verse, which as an aspect of the person that is above and beyond the three aspects discussed before.

³ [נענין מזה בדבור המתחיל "חייב אינו לבסומי בפניא", במה שכתוב שם (תורה אור צה, ב"ג): "רצורת ה' הוא ג' קוין כו, [שני קוין מחוברים שהם בחינת מחשבה, דבור; וקו ה' הוא בחינת מעשה] - עד: וכמו שכתוב: 'אף עשיתיו'"].

וּבִיאור הַדָּבָר, הִנֵּה צָרִיךְ לְהִבִּין
תְּכַלִּית יְרִידַת הַנְּשָׁמוֹת לְעוֹלָם-הַזֶּה, שִׁירִידָתָן צוֹרֵךְ עֲלֶיהָ הִיא
כְּנוֹדָע.

In order to explain this, we first need to understand the purpose for which our Divine souls had to come down into this world. As is known, this descent is needed to reach an even higher ascent.

וְצָרִיךְ לְהִבִּין, עֲלֶיהָ זוֹ מָה הִיא -
מֵאַחַר שֶׁטָּרָם יְרִידָתָהּ הִיְתָה נִהְיִית
מִזִּיו הַשְּׂכִינָה, וּמָה עִלּוּי גָדוֹל
מִזֶּה?

We need to understand what exactly is this elevation that is accomplished? Before the soul came down into this world, it was enjoying the radiance of the Divine Presence (a great, revealed awareness of Hashem). What greater possible elevation can there be than this?

וְגַם לְהַשְׂכִּיל הֵיטֵב עֲנִין 'מַחְשְׁבָה, דְּבוּר וּמַעֲשֵׂה' לְמַעַלָּה, שֶׁהוּא
בְּחִינַת "בְּרֵאתִיו יִצְרֵתִיו כו'" - שֶׁהִרִי
"כִּי לֹא מַחְשְׁבוֹתַי מַחְשְׁבוֹתֵיכֶם"
(יִשְׁעִיָּה נה, ח) כְּתִיב, וְ"אֵין לוֹ דְמוּת
הַגּוּף כו".⁴

We also need to properly comprehend the idea of the “thought, speech, and action” of Hashem, which is expressed in the way “He created it, formed it, and made it (all the created beings),” since it is written, (Yeshaya 55:8) “(Hashem says), My thoughts are not like your thoughts,” and like we believe: “He (Hashem) has no bodily form,”

Hashem does not have thought, speech, and action in the sense that a person has these abilities. With regard to Hashem, these three faculties are just analogies for Hashem’s power to express Himself. So, what exactly is the analogy?

אֶלָּא הָעֲנִין הוּא, שֶׁבְּחִינַת יְצִיאַת
הָעוֹלָמוֹת מֵהָעֵלָם אֶל הַגִּילּוּי נִקְרָא

The idea is that the process through which the worlds leave their hidden state (in Hashem’s Oneness, as expressed on the level of Atzilus), and become revealed (as independent entities, separate from Hashem) is called "the words of Hashem."

כִּמוֹ עַל דְּרָךְ מְשָׁל בְּאָדָם, הַדִּיבּוּר הוּא מְגַלָּה לְזוּלָתוֹ מִצְפוּנֵי מַחְשְׁבָתוֹ, כִּךְ עַל דְּרָךְ מְשָׁל "בְּעֶשְׂרֵה מְאֻמְרוֹת נִבְרָא הָעוֹלָם"⁷, הֵם בְּחִינַת מְאֻמְרוֹת וְצִירוּפֵי אוֹתִיּוֹת הַיּוֹצְאִים מֵהָעֶלֶם אֶל הַגִּילּוּי וְלִהְיוֹת מֵאִין לִישׁ.

Just as a person's speech reveals to other people what was previously hidden in his thoughts, so, by way of analogy, "with Ten Statements the world was created,"⁸ which are "statements" and the combination of letters of those statements, which come out and reveal Hashem through the creation of worlds, something from nothing.

וְהִנֵּה, "בְּמֵאֵמֶר אֶחָד יִכּוֹל לְהִבְרָאוֹת"⁹. וּכְדָכְתִּיב (תְּהִלִּים ל"ג, ו): "וּבְרוּחַ פִּי כָּל צְבָאָם". פִּירוּשׁ: "רוּחַ פִּי" הוּא בְּחִינַת הַבֶּל-הָעֲלִיּוֹן⁹, וְהוּא "מֵאֵמֶר אֶחָד" - הַכּוֹלֵל. וּכְמֵאֵמֶר¹⁰ "בְּרוּךְ אֱוִימֶר וְעוֹשֶׂה" - בְּמֵאֵמֶר אֶחָד כו'.

Now, "with one statement Hashem could have created the world," as it is written (Tehilim 33:6), "And with the breath of His mouth He created all their hosts." The meaning of "the breath of his mouth" is the "breath from Above," which is the "one statement," which includes all the other statements. This is also hinted at in the phrase (from the daily prayers, Baruch Sheamar), "Blessed is He ⁶ (תְּהִלִּים ל"ג, ו): "בְּדִבְרֵי ה' שָׁמַיִם נִעֲשׂוּ וּבְרוּחַ פִּי כָּל צְבָאָם".

⁷ (אֲבוֹת ה, א).

⁸These are the first ten statements in the Chumash in Parshas Bereishis: "And Hashem said let there be light;" "And Hashem said let there be plants," etc. The process through which everything is created from those verses and letters is explained in Shaar Hayichud Vехаemunam of Tanya.

⁹ [עֵינַי בְּזֶהֱרַח חֶלֶק ג', מ"ז, ב'. וּב' אֲגָרַת הַקֹּדֶשׁ" (סִימָן ה) דְּבוּר הַמִּתְחִיל "וַיַּעַשׂ דְּוֹד"].

who said and made,” meaning that He made everything with one statement.¹¹

אֵלָא שְׁהַדְיָבוּר הוּא מְחַלֵּק וּמְפָרִיד
הַהֶבֶל לְכַמָּה מֵיַי צִירוּפֵי אוֹתִיּוֹת, שֶׁהֵם הֵם רִיבּוּי הַתְּחַלְקוֹת
הָעוֹלָמוֹת - "אֵלֶף אֲלָפִין יִשְׁמְשׁוּנָה, וְרַבּוּ רַבְּבָן קְדָמוּהֵי יְקוּמוּן וְכוּ"¹²; "הַיֵּשׁ
מְסַפֵּר לְגְדוּדָיו כּוּ" (איוב כה, ג).

It is just that the “speech” of Hashem is what divides up and differentiates the “breath” of Hashem into many different letter combinations (which become the names of the particular creatures). This is expressed in the great diversity of the different worlds and their inhabitants, like it says, (Daniel 7:10) “Thousands and millions of angels serve Him, and tens of thousands, and hundreds of millions of angels stand before Him,” and the verse says, (Iyov) “It is impossible to count His legions of angels.”

The Gemara (Chagiga 13b) explains these two verses to mean that each “legion” of angels contains at least one million angels, but there is no limit to how many legions Hashem has.

In physical speech there are two elements: The breath which comes from the lungs, and the vocal cords and articulatory organs that e breath in order to produce different sounds. The breath that underlies all speech sounds is exactly the same breath in all sounds. The only factor that distinguishes between one sound and another is the vocal cords and articulators, which manipulate the flow of air to produce each distinct speech sound.

¹¹This last statement is puzzling: We just quoted that “with one statement Hashem could have made the world,” but, instead He made it with Ten Statements. How are we explaining this phrase from Baruch Sheamar to mean that He actually made the world with one statement?

The idea is that on the level of Hashem’s “thought,” the world was actually created all at once, with one statement of thought. But in “speech” it took ten statements, as will be explained.

Similarly, in the process of creation there is one simple force that animates all of creation equally. This force is called “the breath of the One Above,” which is also referred to as the “one statement” that Hashem could have used to create the world (rather than the “ten utterances,” which Hashem actually used). This “one statement” can be divided into infinitely many different types of creations, through the various “letters” of Hashem’s “speech.”

The maamer will also explain a second analogy from speech:

Thought and speech are inherently linked, inasmuch as speech is a revelation of thought. This means that one’s inner thoughts find outward expression in his speech. However, in thought one can go through a great amount of information in a given period of time, compared to how long it would take to go through and explain that same amount of information in speech. This is because thought is a higher-level faculty than speech, and is more closely connected to one’s soul than speech is. Speech functions to express ideas to other people, whereas thought expresses ideas to oneself and within oneself. This is the reason that information exists on a higher level in thought than in speech. And this is also the reason that thought contains a much greater revelation than is speech.

Similarly, the lifeforce and template of every created being originally existed in Hashem’s “thoughts,” on the level of Atzilus, which is totally unified with Hashem. Similarly, a person’s thoughts are unified with a person, and then become separate from a person through the faculty of speech, which results in the creation of beings that perceive themselves as separate from Hashem. In Hashem’s “thoughts,” everything existed all at once, like information that is condensed into one idea in a person’s thought, and only through Hashem’s “speech” does every created being become differentiated from every other being.

In general, a created being can only access its source in the level of speech, but cannot reveal a direct connection to its own source in Hashem’s thoughts (the exception to this rule is Adam, the first man, and the Jewish People, who can connect to their source). However, Adam and Avraham and every Jew are still connected to Hashem’s “thoughts” on a revealed level, allowing us to be aware of the fact that we are not separate from Hashem.

This is the idea of what it says, (Tehilim 103:20) “Bless Hashem, His angels, who are strong and powerful to fulfill His word, and listen to the sound of His word.” Only “His word” are they able to listen to, since they receive their life and existence only from the “word of Hashem,” which is a revelation from “what comes out of the ‘mouth’ of Hashem” to bring into existence the great diversity of created beings.

שֶׁהֵם חַיִּים וְקִיּוּמֵיהֶם מִבְּחִינַת "דְּבַר ה'", שֶׁהוּא בְּחִינַת גִּילּוּי "מוֹצֵא פִי ה'"¹³ לְהִיּוֹת רִיבּוּי הַתְּחַלְקוֹת הַנִּבְרָאִים;

The combinations of letters from which each created being receives life are their “names.” These are the names of all the creations, each one with its specific name, like “the Camp of the Angel Michael,” and so too, the names of all the creations according to their varieties.

Like it is written, (Bereishis 2:20) “And Adam called names to all the creatures,” meaning that he called forth their real names, which are the letter combinations of “what comes out of the ‘mouth’ of Hashem” to create and enliven each particular creature through a specific letter combination (name) for each one.

Now, all of this is only the “revealed worlds.” However, there are also “hidden worlds that are not revealed,” which are the source for the “revealed worlds.” Whatever exists in the ¹³ ("על כל מוצא פי ה' יחיה האדם". עקב ח, ג).

¹⁴ (הקדמת תקוני זהר יז, א).

“revealed worlds” must also have a source in the “hidden worlds.”

כְּנִזְכֹּר בְּדַרְשֵׁת רַז"ל¹⁵: "אֵין לָךְ עֵשֶׂב מִלְמַטָּה שְׂאִין לוֹ מִזֶּל מִלְמַעְלָה". וְכֵן הוּא לְמַעְלָה מִמַּעְלָה עַד רוּם הַמַּעְלֹת, וְכִדְכָתִיב (קֹהֵלֶת ה, ז): "כִּי גְבוּהַ מֵעַל גְבוּהַ שׁוֹמֵר, וְגְבוּהֵם עֲלֵיהֶם".

As is mentioned by our Sages, (Bereishis Rabba 10:6) “No blade of grass exists below that does not have a spiritual source Above.” This is true on all levels, each level receiving from a higher level, until the highest of all possible levels, like it is written, (Koheles 5:7) “Each guardian angel has a higher-level angel above him, and there is always a level even higher than that.”

וְהִנֵּה "יִשְׂרָאֵל עָלוּ בְּמַחְשָׁבָה"¹⁶, פִּירוּשׁ: בְּבַחֲיִנַת 'עֲלָמִין סְתִימִין'. וְהֵינּוּ, כְּמוֹ לְמַשָּׁל הַמַּחְשָׁבָה הוּא בַחֲיִנַת הַהֶעָלֶם שֶׁל הַדְּבֹר, שֶׁהַדְּבֹר הוּא מְגַלֶּה וּפּוֹרֵשׁ מֵהַ שְׂבִמְחָשָׁבָה, וּמֵהַ שְׂבִמְחָשָׁבָה הוּא בְּסִקְרָה אַחַת, צָרִיךְ לְפָרֵשׁ הַרְבֵּה בְּדִיבּוּר.

Now, the verse says, “Yisrael came up in Hashem’s thoughts,” meaning, they existed in the “hidden worlds” of Hashem’s thoughts. Just like a person’s thoughts have two elements: 1- His thoughts are hidden behind his speech, since speech reveals and expresses what one is thinking; 2- The amount of information that, in thought, can be captured in a single glance, requires many words to convey through speech.

כִּי בַחֲיִנַת כַּח הַמַּחְשָׁבָה הוּא מֵאֵד נֶעְלָה מִכַּח הַדְּבֹר. שֶׁהַמַּחְשָׁבָה הוּא לְבוּשׁ הַפְּנִימִי, שֶׁמֵתְאַחֶדֶת עִם הַנֶּפֶשׁ מִמַּשׁ, שֶׁהוּא בְּבַחֲיִנַת יִשְׂרָאֵל מֵאֵין מִמַּשׁ.

These two aspects of thought come from the fact that thought is a higher level than speech. This is because thought is called “the inner garment of the soul,” and is totally united with the soul of the person, which is why [the

Therefore, it is written, "And Adam called names to all the animals and to all the birds of the sky," which is also a reference to the angels (who are the spiritual source of the animals and birds), as they are described in Yechezkal (1:10) as having "the face of lion, and the face of an ox, and the face of an eagle," meaning that he called the angels by their names of Michael and Gavriel etc., which are the letter combinations through which they receive existence from the "word of Hashem."

However, as this verse finishes, "Adam called names to all of the animals and birds of the sky and creatures of the field, but Adam did not find 'a helper for himself.'" Meaning that the 'helper' he was missing was a "name."²⁰

This is the idea of what is written, (Yechezkal 33:24) “Son of Man (Yechezkal), those who dwell on these desolate lands, on the land of Yisrael, say: Avraham (our forefather) was only one person, yet he inherited the entire land, and we who are many, to us was given the land to inherit it.” This means that Avraham, our father, ‘was’ previously ‘one.’ Before his Divine soul came into his body, he existed in total “Oneness” with Hashem, referring to the level of Hashem’s “thoughts,” which are totally unified with Hashem, like a person’s thoughts are unified with his own soul.”

These “thoughts” are called “hidden worlds,” which are totally united with Hashem’s Infinite Light, which is a level higher than how the worlds become revealed as seemingly separate from Hashem, called “the world of separateness.”

the souls of the entire Jewish People, was originally on the level of total unity with Hashem, existing in Hashem's 'thoughts,' so too, Adam, the first person, included in himself 600,000 root-souls for the entire Jewish People in one level (his own lofty soul), since the source of the Divine souls is from a level above and beyond the division and 'separateness' of the other created beings, as explained above.

Just like thought can contain a lot of information and can condense it into one point that would take a long time to explain verbally, the same is true regarding Hashem's thought, where all souls exist in undifferentiated unity. This is reflected in the fact that all the Jewish Souls existed simultaneously in Adam and in Avraham, since they were each on the level of Hashem's 'thoughts.'

This all brings out that the source of the Divine soul is on the level of Hashem's 'thoughts,' which are totally unified with Him, similar to a person's thoughts, which are unified with his soul. We still need to understand the benefit of the soul coming down into this world. What possible advantage can the soul attain by being here rather than being part of Hashem's thought?

Summary of Chapter 1:

Q1. What is the meaning of "וּמִסְפָּר אֶת רוֹבַע יִשְׂרָאֵל"-or who can count the רוֹבַע of Yisrael?"

A1. The word רוֹבַע could either mean one-fourth, or a total of four. Thus, the verse could either mean, "Who can count one-fourth of Yisrael?" Or, it could mean, "Who can count Yisrael, who is made up of four parts?"

הַקְדָּמָה ו' יב. שְׁעַר הַפְּסוּקִים פְּרָשָׁה בְּרֵאשִׁית דְּרוֹשׁ ג'.
 [וְעֵינַי בְּזֶהר חֶלֶק א': פ"ה, ב'. ק"ב, ב'.]

Q2. According to the second translation of רובע as a total of four, what are the “four parts” of Yisrael?

A2. Three out of the four aspects of Yisrael are the three general ways in which we connect to Hashem. They are: The 1-thought (בְּרֵאֵתִיו), 2-speech (יְצִרְתִּיו) , and 3-action (אֲעֲשִׂיתִיו) of the Torah and Mitzvos. The fourth aspect of our connection to Hashem is hinted to by the word “אֲ-also” (of אֲעֲשִׂיתִיו), implying another aspect of our connection to Hashem that is higher than thought, speech, and action. To understand this “fourth aspect of our connection,” we need to answer the following question:

Q3. What is the purpose for which our Divine soul came down into a body?

A3. It came down in order to connect to Hashem on an even deeper level than it was connected to Him while still Above.

Q4. What type of existence did the soul have in its source, and what type of connection to Hashem did it have in its source?

A4. In its source, the soul existed on the level of Hashem’s “thoughts,” which are higher than His “speech.” Speech is Hashem’s revelation, which He uses to create our world and the spiritual worlds of souls and angels that feel separate from Him. Just like speech reveals one’s inner thoughts to someone else, so too, this creative power gives rise to beings that consider themselves to be “other” and separate from Hashem. Hashem reveals His creative power to these “other” beings. However, in the world of Atzilus, Hashem’s true Oneness is fully revealed, and the souls therefore feel completely united with Him, just as a person’s thoughts are united with the thinker and reveal one’s own ideas to themselves. In such a case, there is no “other” involved. Our Divine souls originally existed on this lofty level.

Q5. If our souls started out on such a high level of connection to Hashem, similar to His “thoughts, which” that are totally united with Him, what possible greater, deeper connection can be attained in this physical world? This is what the maamer will continue to explain:

ג. Chapter 2:

ואַחֲרֵי הַדְּבָרִים וְהָאֱמֶת הָאֵלֹהִים²³, יִשׁ
לְהִבִּין מֵהוּ תוֹסֶפֶת הָעֵילוּי
לְהַנְשָׂמָה לְעוֹלָם-הַזֶּה
בְּהִתְלַבְּשׁוּתָהּ בְּגוֹף הַגִּשְׁמִי -

After the above truth and explanations, we can understand what is the great advantage that the Divine soul receives in this physical World through becoming invested into a physical body.

Previously, we asked about the advantage of the soul's descent into a body. The reason for this question is as follows:

מֵאַחַר שֶׁבְּמִקּוֹר חוֹצְבָה הֵיְתָה
כְּלוּלָה וּמְתַאֲחֶדֶת בְּאוֹר אֵין-סוֹף
בְּרוּךְ-הוּא בְּבַחֲיִנַת מַחְשָׁבָה, בְּחִינַת
'עֲלָמִין סְתִימִין', לְמַעַל מַעַלָּה
מְבַחֲיִנַת 'שֵׁם' וּבְחִינַת 'דְּבַר הַ'
בְּ'עֲלָמִין דְּאֲתַגְלִין' כִּנ"ל.

Since, in the soul's source, from which it was derived (in Atzilus), it was included in, and unified with the Infinite Light of Hashem on the level of Hashem's "thoughts" - which are called "the hidden worlds," a level above and beyond the level of Hashem's "Name" and "the Words of Hashem," which are called "the revealed worlds" as explained above -

What greater elevation could the soul possibly experience by descending into this world than what it experienced while existing in Hashem's "thoughts?"

אַךְ הִנֵּה כְּתִיב (תְּהִלִּים פו, א): "וַיַּחַד לְבָבִי לִירְאָה שְׁמֶךָ"; וְכֵן אָנוּ
מִתְפַּלְלִין בְּבִרְכַּת "אֶהְבֵּת עוֹלָם
אֶהְבְּתֶנּוּ כו' - וַיַּחַד לְבָבֵנו כו'".

However, the answer is as follows: It is written, (Tehilim 86:11) "(King David asks Hashem) unite my heart to fear Your Name," and so too in our daily prayers, we say in the blessing of Ahavas Olam (before the Shema), "And unite our hearts to love and fear Your Name."

²³ (אחרי הדברים והאמת האלה: לשון הכתוב דברי הימים ב' לב, א).

וְהֶעֱנִין, כִּי יֵשׁ בְּחִינַת 'רְעוּתָא-
דְּלִיבָא', שֶׁהוּא 'רְצוֹן הַלֵּב', וְיֵשׁ בָּזֶה
ב' בְּחִינּוֹת - פְּנִימִיּוֹת וְחִיצוֹנִיּוֹת:

The idea of “uniting our heart” is as follows: In the level of service called “Desire of the Heart” there are two aspects: The “inner aspect” of the heart’s desire and the “outer aspect” of the heart’s desire:

פְּנִימִית נְקוּדַת הַלֵּב הִיא בְּחִינַת
אַהֲבַה-רַבָּה, שְׁלֹמְעֵלָה מֵהַטַּעַם
וְהַדַּעַת, וּבָאָה מִלְמַעְלָה בְּבְחִינַת
מִתְנָה, כְּמוֹ שֶׁכָּתוּב (קָרַח יח, ז):
"עֲבוֹדַת מִתְנָה אֶתְּן אֶת כְּהוֹנֵתְכֶם"²⁴;

The “innermost aspect” of the heart’s desire is expressed in a “Great Love” for Hashem, in a manner that is above any explanation or logic, and it comes from Above as a “gift,” as it is written, (Bamidbar 18:7) “I (Hashem) will give you (Aharon and his sons) the service in the Mishkan as Kohanim as a gift.”

It says in the Zohar (I:45b), “The service of the Kohanim in the Beis Hamikdash represented a deep level of desire to connect to Hashem. This desire came from the innermost part of the heart. This was expressed in the fact that they didn’t sing or talk when they performed the service. Instead, they worked quietly, since their feeling for Hashem was too deep to be expressed in any words or melody. By contrast, the Leviim (Levites) sang in the Beis Hamikdash, expressing the lower level of desire for Hashem, which can be conveyed in a song.

Since this higher level of desire for Hashem from the inner aspect of the heart is associated with Kohanim, and regarding their service the verse says that it is a “gift” from Hashem, we understand that this deep love for Hashem from the inner aspect of the heart is a “gift from Above.”

וְחִיצוֹנִיּוֹת הַלֵּב הוּא הַנִּלְקַח מִן

And the “outer aspect” of the heart’s desire comes from the knowledge and contemplation of the greatness of Hashem, each person according to his capacity, and according to his understanding and awareness of (the existence and all-encompassing reality of) Hashem's Infinite Light. Accordingly, he can arouse the love for Hashem in his heart.

והנה מודעת זאת, כי "את זה לעומת זה עשה אלהים"²⁶: שכמו שיש דעת בקדושה "לדעת את ה'"²⁷ "ולאהבה אותו"²⁸, כך יש דעת מצד הקליפה וסטרא אחרא, והוא דעת הרע, ולאהוב דברים זרים, ו"לתאוה יבקש נפרד" (משלי יח, א), מחמת שערב לחכו מתיקות עולם-הזה ותענוגיו.

Now, it is known, "Hashem has made holiness corresponding to unholiness." (Koheles 7:14) Just like there is an awareness in holiness that leads a person "to know Hashem" (Hosheia 6:3), so too, there is an awareness in unholiness, a "bad" awareness, which leads a person to love things other than Hashem, like the verse says, "One who goes after physical desires becomes separate from Hashem's Oneness," (Mishlei 18:1) since the enjoyment of this physical world and its pleasures is pleasing to his appetite, this awareness of physical pleasure distracts him from connecting to Hashem.

והנה זו היא מדת "בינונים - זה וזה שופטן כו"²⁹, "ולאום מלאום יאמץ כו" - "כשזה קם זה נופל"³⁰.

This service of Hashem with the outer aspect of the heart is the aspect of the Beinoni (regular person), that (Brachos 61b) "both the Yetzer Hara (unholy desires) and Yetzer Tov (holy desires) 'judge' him (and try to influence),” and, like it says regarding the battle between Yaakov and Eisav, which represents the battle between our Divine soul and our animal soul, “One nation will fight against the other nation,” (Bereishis 25:23) as explained by Rashi to mean, “When one nation succeeds the other nation fails.”

This means that when the desires of the animal soul are strong, they block out the desires of the Divine soul. When the desires of the Divine soul are strong, they overcome the desires of the animal soul.

אך האהבה שבפנימית-הלב, שלמעלה מהטעם ודעת, רק באה מלמעלה בבחינת "מתנה" - אין בחינת "זה לעומת זה" בנגדה.

However, the love for Hashem from the “inner aspect” of the heart, which is above any explanation or logic, and only comes as a “gift” from Above, at that level there is no corresponding element in the realm of unholiness.

שבחינת 'פנימית נקודת הלב' היא בחינת 'יחידה', שאין לה אלא רצון אחד לאביה שבשמים,

Since this level of “the innermost aspect of the heart” is from the level of the Divine soul called “Yechida”³¹ (lit. “one and only”) since it only has one and only

5 Levels of the Divine Soul
יחידה-Yechida	An essential connection to Hashem’s Essence, to the point of self-sacrifice
חיה-Chaya	A subconscious awareness of perceiving Hashem
נשמה-Neshama	Deep understanding of Hashem’s Oneness
רוח-Ruach	Deep emotions of love and fear for Hashem
נפש-Nefesh	Action in service of Hashem, using the garments of thought, speech, and deed to fulfill the Torah and Mitzvos desire: To be connected to Hashem, her “Father in Heaven.”

וְהִיא הַמַּעֲלָה וְהַמְדַּרְגָּה שְׁאִין
דוֹגְמָתָהּ וְלֹא בְעֶרְכָּהּ נִמְצָא
בְּגִשְׁמִיּוֹת כָּלֵל, רַק לֵה' לְבָדוֹ נִמְצָא
בְּ"בְנֵי יִשְׂרָאֵל עִם קְרוֹבוֹ" (תְּהִלִּים קמח, יד).

This level has nothing comparable to it in this physical world. The desire for nothing other than Hashem exists only in “the Children of Yisrael, the nation close to Him.” (Tehilim 148:14)

כְּמוֹ שְׂכֵתוֹב (תִּשְׂא לֵד, ט): "כִּי עִם
קָשָׁה עוֹרְףָּהּ הוּא, וְסִלְחָתָּהּ וְגוֹ", פִּירוּשׁ
"קָשָׁה עוֹרְףָּהּ" - בְּחֵינֵת רְצוֹן
שֶׁל מַעֲלָה מִהַטַּעַם וְדַעַת כו'.³²

This is also connected to what it says, (Shemos 34:9) “Because they (the Jewish People) are a stubborn people, You (Hashem) should forgive them.” The meaning of “stubborn” is having a desire to connect to Hashem that is above any explanation or logic.

Being stubborn is generally an irrational trait. Stubbornness implies that one is being stubborn and resisting something sensible and logical. In the context of the maamer, this stubbornness refers to the innate desire of a Jew to connect with Hashem in a way that is not rational. This desire derives from a level of the soul that entirely transcends intellect. Therefore, it is referred to as a “stubborn” desire to connect to Hashem, even in situations where logic might dictate otherwise.³³

וּבְהַתְעוֹרְרוֹת אֶהְבֶּה רַבָּה זוּ, בְּקַל
הוּא יָכוֹל לִנְצַח וְלִהְגַּבִּיר הַטּוֹב עַל

When this “Great Love” for Hashem (from Yechida) becomes ³² כְּמוֹ שֶׁנִּתְבָּאֵר בְּמִקוֹם אַחֵר. (וְעֵינֵינוּ בְּרַבּוּת, כִּי תִשְׂא, סוּף פְּרִשָּׁה מ"ב: "וְאִינוּ אֶלָּא לְשַׁבְּחוֹ כו' לְשַׁבְּחָן - אוֹ יְהוּדֵי אוֹ צִלוֹב". וּבְמַתְנֵי כְּהוֹנָה: הוּא עוֹ כְּנִמְר וּמוֹסֵר נַפְשׁוֹ לְמִיתָה עַל קִידוּשׁ הַשֵּׁם יְתִרָה).

³³ For example, over history we had many cases of Jews who were not “religious” in their daily life, but when it came to a question of denying their Jewish identity, they “stubbornly” refused, even at the cost of their lives, to go against Hashem. This shows that Jews have a connection to Hashem that is not based on logic or understanding, since even Jews that had almost no knowledge of the greatness of Hashem were willing to give up their lives to keep their connection to Him. See Tanya chapter 18.

aroused in a person's heart, it is easy to be victorious and cause the good desires of the Divine soul to completely overcome the bad desires of the animal soul, since there is no way for unholiness to compete with this.

וְזֶהוּ "יַחַד לְבָבִי וְכוּ"; "וַיַּחַד לְבָבֵנו כִּי" - שְׂיִהְיֶה נִכְלָל בְּחִינַת
חִיצוֹנִיּוֹת-הָרָצוֹן בְּבִחִינַת פְּנִימִית-
הָרָצוֹן.³⁴

This is the meaning of “unite my heart” and “unite our hearts” - we are asking Hashem to help us to unite the “outer aspect of the heart’s desire” for Hashem, with the “inner aspect of the heart’s desire” for Hashem.

We are asking Hashem that we should always be consciously aware of this “super-rational” desire to connect to Hashem.³⁵

וְזֶהוּ "אֵף עֲשִׂיתִיו": שְׂ"אֵף" מְרַבֵּה

הָעֲלִיּוֹן שֶׁלִּמְעַלָּה מֵעַלָּה מְבִחִינַת
מִחְשְׁבָה, דְּבוֹר וּמַעֲשֵׂה.

And this is the meaning of “I (Hashem) have ‘אֵף-also’ made it:” The word “אֵף-also” is used to include another aspect (of serving Hashem, besides for action, speech, and thought), which is the aspect of the higher level of desire to connect to Hashem that is above

³⁴ (וְעַיִן מֵה שֶׁנִּתְבָּאָר מִזֶּה סוֹף דְּבוֹר הַמִּתְחִיל "לְהִבִּין עִנְיַן הַבְּרִכוֹת" (תוֹרָה אור ז, ב). וְעַיִן מֵה שֶׁנִּתְבָּאָר סוֹף דְּבוֹר הַמִּתְחִיל "וְהִקְרַבְתֶּם עוֹלָה אִשָּׁה").

³⁵ There is an implied question here: The Alter Rebbe just said that the outer aspect of the heart’s desire for Hashem, which comes from contemplation, is the level attainable by the average person, the Beinoni. Then he says that we are able to come to the level of Yechida, of the inner aspect of the heart’s desire for Hashem that is beyond all logic. How do we resolve this apparent difficulty?

On a simple level, the answer is as follows: Even though, on a daily basis we need to use our mind to learn about Hashem and contemplate His greatness, and we use that awareness to fuel our service of Hashem, at the same time we also have the ability to go even deeper and reveal our essential connection to Hashem, which is beyond logic. This gives us even greater strength to overcome the Yetzer Hara, as explained in Tanya, chapters 18-25. This point will also be addressed further on in the maamer.

and beyond the aspects of thought, speech, and action in serving Hashem.

וְסִמְךָ לְעֲשִׂיתִיו, לְפִי שְׁעִיקָר גִּילוּי רְצוֹן זֶה הוּא בְּבַחֲיַנַּת עֲשִׂיָּה גְּשָׁמִיּוֹת דּוֹקָא. דְּהֵיִנוּ בְּמַעֲשֵׂה הַמְצוֹת, לְהֵיּוֹת "בִּטֵּל רְצוֹנְךָ מִפְּנֵי רְצוֹנוֹ"³⁶, בְּ"סוּר מֵרַע וְעֲשֵׂה טוֹב" (תְּהִלִּים לַד, טו).

The verse places the word “אֶף-also” next to the word “עֲשִׂיתִיו-I have made it,” since the main revelation of this higher level of desire for Hashem is expressed specifically in the physical world, in the fulfillment of the Mitzvos, to “put aside your desires to fulfill His Will,” (Avos 2:4) and in “turning away from bad and doing good.” (Tehilim 34:15)

וְרַמְ"ח מְצוֹת-עֲשֵׂה הֵם רַמְ"ח הַמְּשֻׁכּוֹת רְצוֹן-הָעֲלִיּוֹן, וְ"נְעוּץ תַּחֲלָתֵן בְּסוּפֵן"³⁷ דִּיִּקָּא.³⁸

And the 248 Positive Mitzvos are 248 channels to draw down this higher level of desire for Hashem, since (like it says Sefer Yetzira 1:7), “The highest levels are expressed specifically in the lowest levels,”

This means that our most essential connection to Hashem, which is even higher than “thought” and understanding, is revealed specifically through the physical actions of Mitzvos, and through overcoming our physical desires.

וְזֶהוּ שְׂאוּמְרִים בְּקִרְיַת-שְׁמַע "וְהָיוּ הַדְּבָרִים הָאֵלֶּה אֲשֶׁר אֲנֹכִי מְצַוְךָ today," "and it will be if you will surely listen to My Mitzvos," (Devarim 11:13) only after saying that "you should love Hashem your G-d בְּכָל לִבְבְּךָ - with all the aspects of your heart," - meaning with both aspects of the heart; with the inner aspect and the outer aspect of the heart.

The implication is that the main expression of the inner aspect of the heart - included in 'בְּכָל לִבְבְּךָ - with all the aspects of your heart' - is revealed specifically by fulfilling Mitzvos.

רַק שְׂאֵי אֶפְשָׁר לָבֵא לְבַחֲנֵת פְּנִימִיּוֹת עַד שְׂיִגִיעַ וַיִּשְׁיַג תַּחֲלָה בְּחִינַת הַחִיצוֹנִיּוֹת הַנּוֹלָדָה מֵהַדַּעַת, כִּי צָרִיךְ לִילֵךְ מִמַּטָּה לְמַעַל³⁹.

However, it is impossible to come to the level of the 'inner aspect' of the heart until one first reaches the level of the 'outer aspect' of the heart, which is generated from his contemplation and awareness of Hashem's greatness, since a person needs to work his way up, from below to above.

זוֹהוּ עֲנִין כָּל הָאֲרִיכוֹת שְׁלִפְנֵי קְרִיאַת־שְׁמַע בְּפִסְוִקֵי־דְזִמְרָה וּבְרָכוֹת שְׁלִפְנֵי קְרִיאַת־שְׁמַע וְכוּ'. כְּנוֹדָע.

This is the purpose of the lengthy preparations before Krias Shema, consisting of Pesukei Dezimra and the blessings before Krias Shema, as is known.

We first need to arouse the lower level of the "outer aspect of the heart," so that when we say Shema, we will be able to reach the level of the "inner aspect of the heart." For this reason, we have many prayers preceding and preparing us for the recital of the Shema.

actually become the ‘248 Limbs of the King.’

Just like a person’s limbs are channels through which the light and life of the soul are manifest in the world, and they become united with the soul that enlivens them, so too, the Mitzvos are channels for Hashem’s Infinite Light and Will to be expressed in the world, and they, together with the person fulfilling them, become united with that Infinite Light.

And this is what our Sages have

We see that specifically through fulfilling Mitzvos in this world and overcoming physical temptations, we reveal a greater and deeper connection to Hashem than all of the revelations that the soul experiences in the higher spiritual worlds.

The power behind this ability to serve Hashem in the physical world is from the essence of the soul, called Yechida, which is bound up with the Essence of Hashem. Thus, it is specifically in this world and specifically through our Mitzvos, prayer and overcoming temptations that we connect to the very Essence of Hashem through the essence of our soul. This connection is entirely deeper than just being included in Hashem's 'thoughts' in Atzilus.

Summary of Chapter 2:

Q1. What is the great advantage the Divine soul receives in attaining a deeper connection to Hashem more than it had in its source in Hashem's "thoughts"?

A1. In order to answer the above question, we explained two levels of the heart: The "inner aspect" and the "outer aspect" of the heart's desire to connect to Hashem.

The "outer aspect" of this desire is the love for Hashem that stems from contemplating His greatness and developing an awareness of Him in our minds, and thereby, also in our hearts. Since this love comes from contemplation and awareness, it has to fight against an opposing awareness coming from the animal soul; an awareness of physical pleasures that tempt the person to pursue them. This is the constant battle of the Beinoni: To focus on an awareness of Hashem and produce feelings for Him to counter the awareness and temptations for physicality that the animal soul constantly prioritizes.

The "inner aspect" of this desire for Hashem comes from the very essence of the Divine soul, called "Yechida." This level is always bound up with the Essence of Hashem. This level of connection to Hashem is not based on understanding or contemplation, but is an essential aspect of every Jew's very being. It is so deep and so far beyond logic that there is no counterpart for this level in the animal soul. Thus, by revealing this connection, a Jew always has the power to overcome the desires of the animal soul, since there is no aspect of the animal soul that can even attempt to interfere with the level of Yechida.

This level of connection, which is beyond logic and contemplation, is called "the fourth aspect of Yisrael," since it is a deeper level of connection to Hashem than just the action, speech, or even the thought of Torah and Mitzvos. This is due to the fact that it is deeper than the entire realm of thought, even thoughts of Torah.

Now, we can understand the benefit that the Divine soul receives by connecting to Hashem in this world.

In its source, the soul is only connected to Hashem on the level of Hashem's "thoughts," a level that is unified with Hashem.

However, in this world the soul experiences its essential connection to Hashem on the level of "Yechida," which is totally beyond the realm of "thought." Since "no thought can grasp Hashem at all," the true connection to Hashem is specifically on this level of Yechida, and not on the level of "thought."

This "fourth" aspect of our connection to Hashem (the connection that derives from the Yechida) is most clearly expressed in the power of a Jew to have self-sacrifice to fulfill the physical Mitzvos even when it is difficult. It is also seen in the ability to overcome the physical temptations of this world. This is why the "fourth" aspect of our connection is hinted to in the phrase "אֲנִי עָשִׂיתִיו - I have also made it," since the "fourth" aspect of our connection to Hashem, which we learn from the word "אֲנִי - also," is expressed specifically in the action of the Mitzvos - "עָשִׂיתִיו / action."

.ג Chapter 3:

וְזֶהוּ "וּמִסְפָּר אֶת רֹבֵעַ יִשְׂרָאֵל":

And this is the meaning of the verse, "And who can count the number of רֹבֵעַ-one fourth of Yisrael?"

כִּי הִנֵּה כְּתִיב (הוֹשֵׁעַ ב, א): "וְהָיָה
מִסְפָּר בְּנֵי יִשְׂרָאֵל כְּחֹל הַיָּם אֲשֶׁר
לֹא יִמָּד וְלֹא יִסָּפֵר",

Now, it is written, (Hosheia 2:1) "And the number of the Children of Yisrael will be like the sand of the sea, which cannot be measured, nor can it be counted."

וּבְגִמְרָא (יומא כ"ב, א) רַמִּי אֶהְדִּידִי:
כְּתִיב: "וְהָיָה מִסְפָּר" ⁴⁵ - וּכְתִיב:
"אֲשֶׁר לֹא יִמָּד וְלֹא יִסָּפֵר"?

And the Gemara (Yoma 22a) asks on this verse, "It is written, 'And the number of the Children of Yisrael,' implying that there is a number, and then the verse continues, 'Which cannot be measured nor counted,' implying that there is no number for them?"

וּמִשְׁנֵי: "כָּאֵן כְּשֶׁעוֹשִׂין רְצוֹנוֹ שֶׁל

The answer is that when they fulfill the Will of Hashem, then they will have no number, and when they do not fulfill the Will of Hashem, then they will have a number."

וּלְבָאֵר הָעֵינָן, צְרִיךְ לְהַבִּין מֵהוּ
"כְּחֹל הַיָּם"?

We need to explain: What is the idea of saying that when the Jewish People are 'not fulfilling Hashem's Will' then they will have a number, only as much as the 'sand of the sea?' What is the idea of the comparison to sand in terms of counting the Jewish People?

⁴⁵ ("אֵלְמָא אֵית לְהוּ מְנִין". רש"י שם).

⁴⁶ ("כָּאֵן בְּזִמְן שְׂאִין עוֹשִׂין רְצוֹנוֹ שֶׁל מְקוֹם").

We find that the earth around oceans and rivers becomes sand, which is dried out and crumbles into small pieces. This is not the case with the rest of the earth of the land, which are solid clumps of earth that are moist and somewhat stuck together.

This is because the waters of the oceans and rivers draw out the moisture from the earth surrounding them, which is why the earth remains dried out and broken down into tiny pieces of sand.

הַמְּהוּוֶה כָּל הַנְּבְרָאִים מֵאִין לִישׁ:

This is an analogy for the general lifeforce of all worlds, which comes from the "Words of Hashem" and the "Breath of His Mouth," in terms of how He brings into existence of all of the creations to be something from nothing:

הִנֵּה כְּתִיב: "וַיַּעַשׂ אֶת הַיָּם מוּצָק, עֲשׂוֹר
בְּאֵמָה מְשֻׁפְתּוֹ עַד שֻׁפְתּוֹ, עַגֹל סְבִיב, וְחֻמֵּשׁ

סְבִיב.

It is written, (Melachim I 7:23-25) "And He (King Shlomo) made a mikveh for the Kohanim in the Beis Hamikdash and he called it "The Sea," made of one piece of cast metal, ten amos in diameter, the top part was circular; it was five amos high, and its circumference was thirty amos.

מִלְּמַעְלָה וְכָל אַחֲרֵיהֶם בֵּיתָה." (בְּמִלְכִים א')

It stood on top of twelve metal statues of cows, three facing north, three facing west, three facing south, and three facing east, and "The Sea" was situated on top of them, and all these metal cows had סימן ז⁴⁷). their backs facing towards the center (so that from the outside, what was visible was only their front sides).”

The mikveh for Kohanim that King Shlomo made, which he called “The Sea,” represented the level of Malchus of Atzilus, “the Words of Hashem’s Mouth,” through which Hashem creates everything. King Shlomo put it on top of twelve metal cows, which faced four directions. This represented the four camps of the angels: Michael, Gavriel, Refael, and Uriel. This was done in order to show that Malchus of Atzilus is exalted above all the angels.

פירוש: לפי שבחינת "הים" עומד

The spiritual significance behind this: Because this level of “The Sea” (Malchus of Atzilus) stands “above” and distant from them (the angels), they become like “twelve cows,” meaning divided up and separated into the number twelve.

Malchus of Atzilus separates itself from the angels that derive from it and thereby conceals the intense revelation of Hashem that exists in Atzilus and unifies everything in Hashem’s presence. Therefore, they all feel not only separate from Hashem, but also separate from each other, to the extent that they are divided from four categories into twelve categories, and then into even more categories, etc.

והוא, כי התהוות מאין ליש -
במדת מלכותו יתברך "המתנשא
מימות עולם"⁴⁸, ו"מלכותך מלכות
כל עולמים וגו'" (תהלים קמה, יג).

This is because the process of creation something from nothing, through the aspect of Hashem’s Malchus-Kingship, which is “exalted above the days of the world,” and “Your Kingship is a Kingdom of all worlds.”

⁴⁷ (מלכים א' ז, כג. כה: "ויעש את הים מוצק, עשר באמה משפתו עד שפתו, עגל סביב, והמש באמה קומתו, וקו שלשים באמה, יסב אתו סביב. עמד על שני עשר בקר, שלשה פנים צפונה, ושלשה פנים ימה, ושלשה פנים נגבה, ושלשה פנים מזרחה, והים עליהם מלמעלה, וכל אחריהם ביתה").

⁴⁸ (ברכת "יוצר אור").

ולפי שהוא "רם ומתנשא"⁴⁹ מהם, נעשו בבחינת 'עם' - מלשון עוממות, דברים זרים ונפרדים⁵⁰.

And because He is "elevated and exalted" above the creations, therefore, they become a עם-nation, with the word עם-nation related to the word 'עוממות-darkened coals,' which are removed from the fire and extinguished. So too, the creations are removed from the fiery revelation of Atzilus, which causes them to become things other than holiness, and develop a feeling of separateness from Hashem.

כי "אין מלך בלא עם"⁵¹, והתהוותם בבחינת עם הוא מבחינת התנשאות המלך עצמו, ממילא יורדים להיות בבחינת עם.

The is because "There is no King without a nation,"⁵² and the process by which they are created to be separate from Him as His nation is from the King making Himself exalted. This automatically causes the creation to become lower and separate until they can be a 'nation.'

וכמשל המלך היושב על כסאו, שמחמת זה זעים ונרתעים הכל מלפניו, ונעשים שפלים לפניו.

The analogy for this is a king who sits on his royal throne; because of this display of his lofty status, everyone trembles before him and lowers themselves before him.

⁵² Shaar HaYichud Vehaemuna of Tanya (Chapter 7) notes that if a king has many children or servants, he cannot rule over them. He can only rule over people who are totally separate from himself. These separate individuals much willingly choose to give themselves over to the king and to accept his rulership. So too, Hashem has enjoyment from the created beings who feel separate from Him, and then choose to serve Him. This is the idea of Hashem's "Kingship."

ולכן מבחינת מלכותו יתברך,

Now, because the aspect of Hashem's Malchus-Kingship is Infinite, and it is from this Divine attribute that the limited worlds of Beria, Yetzira, and Asiya⁵³ were created, therefore, even in those worlds there is an aspect of infinity, like it says, (Iyov 25:3) "Is there a number for His legions of angels?"

This implies that there is an infinite number of legions of angels, even though each angel is limited. From this, we see that even the finite spiritual worlds contain an aspect of infinitude, reflecting their source in the infinite attribute of Hashem's Malchus-Kingship.

However, since they receive life and existence from the process in which Hashem's Malchus-Kingship elevates itself above them, "Who is elevated above the days of the world," therefore, they descend into separation and become divided into many different varieties.

אך איך הם מקבלים חיותם ממדת
 מלכותו יתברך - והוא "מתנשא"
 מהם?

We need to understand how it is possible for them to receive their very life from Hashem's attribute of Malchus-Kingship, which is exalted and removed from them?

הנה באמת, על זה כתיב (תהלים

In truth, regarding this question, it is written, (Tehilim 84:12) "Like the sun and its protective ⁵³ Three spiritual worlds: Beria-Creation, the highest created world, created directly from Malchus of Atzilus; Yetzira-Formation, a lower spiritual world, where the spiritual existence of Beriah takes on a more pronounced form. This change is so that it can become the source of the lowest spiritual world, which is Asiya-Action. Asiya-Action is directly 'above' our physical world and is the direct spiritual source for the physical things in our world.

והוא כח אלהי, שהוא כל יכול, ו"הן
הן גבורותיו כו" 54. וכמו שנתבאר ב"ספר

covering are Hashem's Names of Havaya and Elokim," meaning that Hashem's Name Elokim, which conceals the revelation of His Name, Havaya is also a Divine Attribute, showing how Hashem can do anything; He even conceal and hide His Infinite Light. And this brings out His true Might.

The fact that the Divine life-force from Malchus is directly involved in creating and giving life to everything, and at the same time is totally hidden from the creations, is part of the miracle of creation, which is beyond human understanding. This wonder brings out the true Might of Hashem: At the same time, He is creating and enlivening us in the closest possible proximity, He is simultaneously hiding Himself from us so that we should not even know (directly) that He is creating us!

This answers the question of how can we receive life from Malchus if it is exalted above us, since Hashem is capable of giving life directly and, at the same time, making Himself totally exalted. This is impossible for any created being to do (simultaneously reveal and conceal itself).

אך דרך בלל, ההתנשאות הוא
בחינת הסתלקות, שלא ירד החיות
אליהם כל כך.

But, in general, the exaltedness of Hashem's Malchus is connected to the withdrawal and removal of revelation, so that too much lifeforce should not descend to the creations.

והוא כמשל המים ששואבין

This is similar to how the water of the seas and rivers draw the moisture out of the earth and into themselves, causing the ground surrounding them to turn into sand, which is made of separate pieces of sand (compared to clumps of moist earth).

והנה בחינת "מספר" הזה אינו

Now, this "number" of legions of angels isn't really a limited

⁵⁴ (יומא ט, ב. ילקוט שמעוני נחמיה רמז תרעא).

מִסְפָּר מִמֶּשׁ כְּדִכְתִּיב (איוב כה, ג):
 "הִישׁ מִסְפָּר וְגו'!" אֵלֶּא שֶׁהוּא
 נִקְרָא בְּגֵדֵר מִסְפָּר, מִפְּנֵי שֶׁהוּא
 מְפֹזָר וּמְפֹרֵד לְחֻלְקִים, וְיָכוֹל
 לְחוֹל עֲלָיו שֵׁם מִסְפָּר, אֲבָל אֵינוֹ
 מִסְפָּר מִמֶּשׁ כִּי "לֹא יִסְפָּר מְרֹב" (וישׁלח לב, יג), number, like it is written "is there a number for His legions?" Rather, it is in the category of having a number, because it is divided into countable parts. Therefore, theoretically, a number could be applied to them. But, in actuality there is no defined number, since "they are too many to count."

כְּמִשַׁל "חֹל הַיָּם אֲשֶׁר לֹא יִסְפָּר
 יָרֵב", רַק הוּא בְּגֵדֵר וּבְחֵינֵת מִסְפָּר
 מִפְּנֵי שֶׁמְפֹרֵד לְחֻלְקִים, וְכִיוֹן שֶׁכֹּל
 חֵלֶק נִפְרָד וְנִבְדֵּל לְעֲצָמוֹ יְחוּל עֲלָיו
 שֵׁם מִסְפָּר :

This is similar to the "sand of the sea that cannot be counted because it is so many," but it is in the category of something that could be counted, since it is divided up into individual pieces, and each piece of sand could be counted separately (it would just take too long to actually count how many pieces of sand there are in the world).

For this we can conclude that there are three categories with regard to counting:

- 1- Something indivisible, like the solid earth that is not divided up. It cannot be counted, since it is all one piece.
- 2- Something separate and limited, like the number of angels in a legion (one million). Each angel is separate and there are only one million in the legion.
- 3- Something separated but not limited (or too many to count), like the number of legions of angels, which is an infinite number. Or, on a lesser scale, the number of pieces of sand, which aren't truly infinite, but are too many to ever be counted by people. This is called "in the category of having a number," since theoretically it could be counted, but in actuality it cannot be counted.

וְהִנֵּה כְּתִיב: "וְהָיָה מִסְפָּר בְּנֵי יִשְׂרָאֵל", שֶׁבְּנֵי יִשְׂרָאֵל הֵם הֵם

Now, regarding the Jewish People it is written, "And it was 'the number;' this is because of the הַעוֹשִׂים בְּחֵינֵת "מִסְפָּר", Children of Yisrael." The deeper meaning behind this is that the Children of Yisrael create the whole concept of "number" and counting.

They are the ones who cause the idea of a "number" and a finite reality to come into existence, since the main idea of Hashem's Kingship (which creates finite, limited existence) is specifically to become King over the Jewish People.

Therefore, they are the ones who draw down Hashem's Kingship to become "a Kingship over all worlds."

This is accomplished through the action of the Mitzvos, which are called "Mitzvos of the King." Therefore, before we perform any Mitzvah, we say, "Blessed are You Hashem our G-d, King of the world," thereby drawing down Hashem's Infinite Light into the level of "King of the world," as explained above.

Since, through the Mitzvos we are literally drawing down Hashem's Infinite Light, therefore, the Mitzvos are only in "the category of having a number," but are not actually limited to a number, since they are connected to the Infinite Light of Hashem.

⁵⁵ (ראה נדרים כה, א ובפירושו רש"י. ולעיל צו יד, ב ועוד: "המצות הן מצות המלך ובקיומם מקיים שום תשים עליך מלך". להעיר מבבא בתרא קנט, א. ותוספתא נגעים פרק ג: גזירת מלך היא) ⁵⁶ [ועיין מה שנתבאר מזה גם פן לעיל פרשת במדבר, סוף דבור המתחיל "והיה מספר בני ישראל" (לעיל ו, ג): 'מספר' היינו בחינת המצות כו'. עיין שם].

וְהוּוּ "אֲשֶׁר לֹא יִמָּד וְלֹא יִסָּפֵר" -
 "כְּשֶׁעוֹשִׂין רְצוֹנוֹ שֶׁל מְקוֹם" כִּנְל,

 בְּמַעֲשֵׂה הַמִּצְוֹת, שֶׁהוּא אֹר אֵיךְ
 סוּף בְּרוּךְ-הוּא.

This is the meaning of the Gemara quoted above, that “they (the Jewish People) cannot be measured, nor counted” when “they fulfill the Will of Hashem,” since they draw down Hashem’s Will into the action of the Mitzvos, and this Will is Hashem’s Infinite Light.

With mitzvos, the Jewish People reveal their connection to Hashem’s Infinite Light, effectively placing themselves in the category of “having a number.” But, in reality the Jewish People are infinite, since they are unified with Hashem’s Infinity.

וְהֵינּוּ עַל יְדֵי "שְׂמֵחָה שֶׁל מִצְוָה"
 מְנַקְדֵת פְּנִימִית הַלֵּב. וְכִדְכָתִיב
 (תְּהִלִּים יט, ט): "פְּקוּדֵי ה' יִשְׂרָיִם
 מְשִׂמְחֵי לֵב",

The revelation of this connection to the Infinity of Hashem is accomplished through “the Joy of performing Mitzvos” from the innermost aspect of the heart,⁵⁷ like it is written, (Tehilim 19:9) “The precepts of Hashem are upright, causing the heart to rejoice.”

וְכִתִּיב⁵⁸: "תַּחַת אֲשֶׁר לֹא עֲבַדְתָּ אֶת
 ה' אֱלֹהֶיךָ בְּשִׂמְחָה וְטוֹב לֵב מְרֹב
 כָּל",

And it is written (Devarim 28:47) regarding the punishment of exile for lack of service of Hashem, “Because you did not serve Hashem your G-d with joy and gladness of heart from an abundance of all good (when you had the chance, this is why you will end up serving your enemies in exile).”

⁵⁷See the maamar דרבה בפומיה where the Rebbe explains this idea at length. In short, the Rebbe concludes that the ultimate connection to Hashem is accomplished by actually doing what Hashem wants, but for this essential connection to be revealed in the person he needs to reveal his innermost desire to connection to Hashem with a true inner joy as described in this maamar.

⁵⁸(תְּבוֹא כַח, מו. וְשֵׁם: וְבָטוֹב).

פִּירוּשׁ "מְרוֹב כֹּל": הֵינּוּ בְּלִי-גְבוּל,

תְּכַלִּית, בְּבַחֲיַנַּת אֵין-סוּף כִּנֵּ"ל⁶⁰.

The inner meaning of serving Hashem "מְרוֹב כֹּל-from an abundance of all good" is serving Hashem with a recognition that the Mitzvos are Infinitely good, since they connect a person to Hashem's Infinite Light, which is both infinitely exalted beyond all limitations, and is also able to permeate all possible limitations, and is truly unlimited, as explained above.

This verse teaches us that the mitzvos should be performed with a deep, inner joy which is derived from an awareness that our connection to the Infinite Truth of Hashem is specifically achieved by performing mitzvos. This connection is beyond any revelation that exists in the spiritual worlds.

וְזֶהוּ "אֶת רִבְעַ יִשְׂרָאֵל" - חֵלֶק הַד',

And this is the meaning of "or who can count the "רִבְעַ" of Yisrael:" The meaning of "רִבְעַ" is the fourth aspect, the level of "אֶף-I have also made it," meaning that specifically there in the action of the Mitzvos (called עֲשִׂיתִיו-action) the lofty Will of Hashem called "אֶף-also" is revealed, since this essential connection to the Essence of Hashem comes together with

(“also”) the action of the Mitzvos, as explained above.

We explained previously that this suprarational connection to Hashem is called the “fourth” aspect of connection, since it goes above and beyond the connection established in action, speech, or thought. This “fourth” type of connection is primarily expressed in the actions of the mitzvos.

וגם "רבע" מלשון ארבעה - כי בזה
נכלל כל ד' בחינות: מחשבה, דבור,
ומעשה, ורצון.

The word “רבע” could also mean “a total of four,” since in this essential connection to Hashem are included all four aspects of connection: thought, speech, action, and the inner desire of the heart for Hashem.

On the one hand, this deep connection to Hashem is a fourth aspect, a deep desire of the heart to connect to Hashem in a way that transcends logic. On the other hand, this connection is actually the fundamental force that drives and motivates the other three holy aspects of thought, speech and action.

Thus, this connection could be viewed as “one fourth” of the connection. Alternatively, it could be viewed as “all four types” of connection.

With this we will understand the answer to the question on what is written, “Who can count the dirt of Yaakov or the number of one fourth of Yisrael?” When it says “or the number” it is referring to what it said previously, “Who can count,” meaning that there is no number and no way to count them. Nonetheless, it says, “Or the number,” implying that there is a number and that it is possible to count them, so is it possible to count them or not?

The answer is, as explained above, that the mitzvos are “in the category of having a number, but in reality, are not limited to a

"עֲשֵׂיתִיו" בְּחִינַת "כַּנְ"ל, יִשְׂרָאֵל "כַּנְ"ל :
 "number," since the Lofty Will of Hashem, and the "fourth aspect of Yisrael" is drawn down into the "עֲשֵׂיתִיו-action of Mitzvos," as explained above.

Summary of Chapter 3:

Q1. The verse says, "Who can count... or the number of the 'fourth' of Yisrael?" By asking, "Who can count?" the verse implies that the Jewish People cannot be counted. However, by saying, "The number of the 'fourth' of Yisrael," the verse implies that they have a number that can be counted. How do we reconcile the two opposite implications of the verse?

A1. The answer is that the "רִבְעֵ-fourth of Yisrael" is referring to the fulfillment of mitzvos, which express the deepest connection of the Divine soul (Yechida) with Hashem. This connection is completely beyond logic. Therefore, it is expressed in the physical performance of mitzvos, out of dedication and obedience to Hashem's Will (and not based on our own logic).

This also connects to the translation of 'רִבְעֵ' as "a total of four," since this deep connection to Hashem expressed in Mitzvos is also in the Mitzvos of thought and speech, not only in action. Thus, this essential desire to connect to Hashem (the fourth aspect) is expressed in the three aspects of thought, speech, and action of the Mitzvos, so that the connection that a Jew has with Hashem has four aspects in total).

Mitzvos have these two opposite properties:

- 1- On the one hand, they are performed with limited, physical, finite objects, enabling them to be counted numerically.
- 2- On the other hand, they are expressions of Hashem's lofty Will, which is truly Infinite and unlimited.

Thus, every Mitzva is both finite and countable, as well as Infinite and unlimited, and therefore cannot be counted in the conventional sense, due to its essentially unlimited value.

The analogy for something that is finite, yet cannot be counted, is the sand by the seashore. Each piece of sand is finite and separate from every other piece of sand. Theoretically, then, the pieces of sand by the ocean could be counted. However, since they are too many to count, they cannot actually be counted. In a similar way, the mitzvos are “in the category of something that can be counted,” but, in reality cannot be counted, since they are directly connected to the Infinity of Hashem.

With mitzvos, the Jewish People also achieve the status of “being in the category of something that can be counted.” But, in reality they cannot be counted, since they are connected to the Infinity of Hashem.

An important factor in revealing the deep connection to Hashem that is achieved by mitzvos is through the “joy of the Mitzvos,” which is the recognition of what is being accomplished, and to truly rejoice in connecting to Hashem when doing a Mitzvah.

.7 Chapter 4:

וְהִנֵּה כָּל זֶה הוּא בְּחִינַת יְחֻדָּא -
 תְּתַאֲרָה בְּמַעֲשֵׂה הַמִּצְוֹת, לְהַמְשִׁיךְ
 רְצוֹן הָעֲלִיּוֹן בְּבְחִינַת "מְסַפֵּר", בְּחִינַת "עֲשִׂיתִיו" כֵּן"ל.

Now, all of this was only on the lower level of experiencing Hashem's true Oneness, called "Yichuda Tita'a," which is expressed in the action of the Mitzvos, which draw down the Lofty Will of Hashem into the level of "number" and "action," as explained above.

- אַךְ "תְּלַמּוּד-תּוֹרָה כְּנֶגֶד כּוֹלָם"⁶¹ - שֶׁהוּא בְּחִינַת יְחֻדָּא-עִילָאָה.

However, it says in the Mishna, (Peah 1:1) "The study of Torah is equivalent to all the other mitzvos combined." This is because [Torah study] is on the higher level of experiencing Hashem's true Oneness, called "Yichuda Ila'a."⁶²

⁶¹ (פְּאָה א, א).

⁶²In short, the idea of Yichuda Tita'a and Yichuda Ila'a is as follows:

The true Oneness of Hashem is that He not just the only creator and the only guiding force behind the world. Rather, He is the only true existence, whatsoever. This is because: 1- He is constantly creating us with His "words," as described in this maamer; 2- It is only from our perspective, where we see His "words" as having left Hashem's Essence and taken on an independent form. In truth, though, they are really His "thoughts," which are still included in Hashem. This can be compared to a person thinking to himself, where his thoughts never become separate from himself.

In the created worlds, especially in our physical world, we can only understand that this is true, but we cannot "feel" or experience this truth directly. In fact, the very idea of fulfilling mitzvos implies that we are separate from Hashem, since a command is given to another, one who is inherently not the commander himself. Therefore, if Hashem is commanding us to do mitzvos, this means that we are separate from Him in order to fulfill His command. So, the idea of mitzvos is that we experience a lower level of Hashem's Oneness, called Yichuda Tita'a. This is due to the fact that with regard to mitzvos, commandments, we feel ourselves to be separate from Hashem. We do not feel and directly perceive the truth that Hashem is the only True Existence; instead, we only understand it intellectually.

However, the study of Torah is connected to a higher-level experience of וְזֶהוּ "מִי מִנֵּה עֶפְרַיִם יַעֲקֹב", בִּי "עֶפְרַיִם"

אֵינוֹ בְּגֵדָר מִסְפָּר כָּלֵל.

This is the meaning behind “Who can count the dirt of Yaakov?” Meaning that the “dirt” here is referring to solid earth that is all clumped together, and therefore is not in the category of things that can be counted at all, since it is all one solid piece, unlike sand, which is made of many tiny, separate pieces.

וְהוּא בְּחִינַת תְּלִמּוּד-תּוֹרָה, לְפִי
שֶׁהוּא רְצוֹנוֹ יִתְבָּרַךְ מִמֶּשׁ.

This is an analogy for the study of the Torah, since it is the actual Will of Hashem.

Just like Hashem is One simple, indivisible Essence, so too, His Will is one simple indivisible Will that is equally expressed in every mitzva. This is akin to hard earth that is one solid continuum encompassing the entire globe, compared to sand, which is divided into many small parts.

וְלִכְךָ הוּא בְּחִינַת יְחֻדָּא-עֵילָאָה,
בְּחִינַת בֵּיטוּל לְאוֹר אֵין-סוּף בְּרוּךְ-
הוּא מִמֶּשׁ,

It is, therefore, on the level of Yichuda Ila’a, which means to be actually and totally absorbed in Hashem’s Infinite Light, וְיַחְוּד חֲבִ"ד-בְּחֲבִ"ד כּו';

Since, while studying Torah a person’s intellect becomes completely united with Hashem’s Wisdom.⁶³

Hashem’s Oneness, called Yichuda Ila’a. On this level, one can feel (to some extent) that we are not really separate from Hashem at all. Even as Hashem’s “thoughts,” which He is “thinking” to Himself and within Himself, the Torah continues to exist, since it is His Will and Wisdom. Therefore, this level of Torah does not allow for any feeling of separateness from Hashem, as is the case with regard to mitzvos.

⁶³ In Tanya, chapter 5, the Alter Rebbe describes the advantage of learning Torah over performing other mitzvos. One of the points he explains is that when a person learns Torah, his mind becomes totally unified with Hashem’s Will and Wisdom, which are totally united with Hashem Himself, thereby causing the person’s mind to also become totally united with Hashem Himself. This experience of total unity with Hashem expresses the idea of Yichuda Ila’a. The reason for this is that when a Jew learns Torah, he is able (to some extent) to feel his essential union with

ו"מִתְנִיחָא - מְלֻכְתָּא" ⁶⁴ כַּנְּל; Furthermore, it says in the Gemara, (Beitza 28b) "The Mishna is like a queen," as explained above in the analogy of a king and queen who are exalted above the rest of the nation. ⁶⁵

וְאִינוּ בְּגֵדֵר "מִסְפָּר" כָּלֵל. ⁶⁶ Therefore, the study of Torah is "not in the category of things that Hashem. He is able to recognize that there is absolutely nothing separate from Hashem.

⁶⁴ (ביצה, כח, ב. וְשֵׁם: מִתְנִיחִין).

⁶⁵ Earlier, we explained the analogy of a king who sits on his throne and is exalted above the people, causing them to feel separate and distant from him. This is similar to how Hashem's attribute of Malchus-Kingship becomes elevated above the creations, causing them to feel separate from Hashem and from each other. (This was also connected to another analogy of the water of the sea, which draws out the moisture from the earth along the seashore, causing it to turn into dry sand, which is made of separate pieces).

This analogy only applies to mitzvos, which can only be fulfilled by beings who experience a sense of separation from Hashem and belong to His nation, over which He is the King. Only then, does the concept of a commandment apply, like a king who commands his nation.

However, in Torah study (mishnayos, for example), we become united with Hashem and become elevated to a "royal" status through our union with the King. This is akin to a queen, who does not feel separate or distant from the king. And this is the deeper meaning of the statement, "Mishnayos are like a queen," since Torah study unites us with Hashem in way that we can experience this oneness and complete lack of separation. This unity can be likened to the concept of a queen, who is completely united with the king. See Torah Or, Pashas Shemos, the first maamar, where this concept is discussed.

אך הדרך שזוכה האדם לאור התורה בבחינת יחודא-עילאה, הוא על ידי בחינת יעקב - מדת הרחמים.

However, the way for a person to merit to experience the light of the Torah on the level of Yichuda Ha'a is through the aspect of “Yaakov,” who represented the Attribute of Mercy.

דהיינו לעורר רחמים רבים על נפשו בקביעת-עתים. כנודע, שעת-רצון הוא בחצות;⁶⁷

This means to set aside fixed times to arouse the abundant mercies of Hashem on one's soul. As is known, that midnight is a time of Divine favor.⁶⁸

”כי ביום הזה יכפר” (לעיל אחרי כו, ד ואילך).

וזהו “קדשנו במצותיה, ותן חלקנו בתורתך” (תפלה העמידה דשבת ויום טוב): ש’על ידי המצות הוא עדיין בחינת קדושין ואירוסין - “וארשתיה לי כו” (הושע ב, כב). אך על ידי התורה הוא בחינת ההמשכה בבחינה פנימית - “וידעת את ה” (שם).

והענין, אפשר לומר: כי עם היות ש’על ידי המצות נמשך בחינת גילוי רצון העליון בנפש, ובחינת אהבה-רבה, אך כי גם ברצון עליון יש גם כן בחינת חיצוניות ופנימיות כמו שנתבאר במקום אחר, על פסוק “ואהיה אצלו אמון ואהיה שעשועים כו” (לעיל במדבר יח, ב ואילך).

וכך גם כן בגילוי אהבה-רבה בנפש, יש גם כן ב’ בחינות:

הא’ - כמו שכתוב “כי עם קשה עורף הוא” כדלעיל, וזהו הנמשך על ידי המצות.

הב’ - כמו שכתוב (שיר השירים ז, ז) “מה יפית ומה נעמת אהבה בתענוגים”. והמשכת בחינת “אהבה בתענוגים” ש’רשו מבחינת פנימית הרצון עליון, ונמשך על ידי התורה, כדכתיב (משלי ח, לא): “ושעשועי את בני אדם”. וזהו “חכמת אדם תאיר פניו” (קהלת ח, א): “פניו” היינו בחינת פנימית. וכמו שנתבאר על פסוק “חכלילי עינים מין” (תורה אור מז, ד), ש’יש בחינת אהבה-רבה, ולמעלה ממנה הוא אהבה-בתענוגים.

ועיין מה שנתבאר בדבור המתחיל “מה טובו”, בענין מצות ותורה. ומה שנתבאר בדבור המתחיל “לא הביט און ביעקב”.

⁶⁷ (ראה שלחן ערוך רבנו הגאון מהרדורא בתרא סימן א, סעיף ח ובהנמסן שם).

⁶⁸ This is referring to the practice of “Tikun Chatzos,” the midnight service of mourning over the destruction of the Beis Hamikdash. In this service, we beseech Hashem to have mercy on the physical Beis Hamikdash, as well as on the spiritual Beis Hamikdash, which refers to our Divine soul. The Divine soul is considered to be in exile within the desires of the animal soul, and we ask Hashem to have

וְכֵן בְּשַׁעַת הַתְּפִלָּה⁶⁹, כִּי הִנֵּה יֵשׁ

So too, at the time of the Morning Prayers, as we find in the order of the prayers and the verses of praise, there are "verses for arousing mercy from Hashem," because [the morning] is a time of Divine Favor to arouse Hashem's mercy on our souls.

And, this is the aspect of "יַעֲקֹב־Yaakov," whose name is made up of two parts: The letter "י," and the word "עֶקֶב־heel," meaning the attribute of arousing mercy on the letter "י," which represents the Divine soul, which comes from Hashem's Wisdom (Chochma) and falls down all the way into the animal soul, which is as insensitive to spirituality as the "heel" of the foot.

וְהִנֵּה מִדְּתוֹ שֶׁל יַעֲקֹב - "מְבַרִּיחַ מִן

This (attribute of mercy) is the attribute of Yaakov, who is described as "connecting from one extreme to the other mercy on the Divine soul in captivity. The same general idea of arousing Hashem's mercy on our Divine soul is also a fundamental aspect of the "Krias Shema Al Hamita" service, the nightly Shema prayers said before going to sleep. In this service, we make an honest and thorough reckoning of our service of Hashem that day. Additionally, part of the Krias Shema Al Hamita service includes resolving to improve the next day, as well as asking Hashem for forgiveness and to have mercy on our Divine soul, that we may act on our positive resolution.

Therefore, right after describing Torah study, which is called “עֵפֶר” as explained above, the verse continues to describe the need for the performance of mitzvos, called “the number of the fourth aspect of Yisrael,” which is called “עֲשִׂיתִיו – the action of mitzvos,”

Summary of Chapter 4:

Q1. If the meaning of the second half of the verse, which says, "Who can count... the 'fourth aspect' of Yisrael?" is referring to the Mitzvos, then what is the first half of the verse referring to when it says, "Who can count the 'dirt' of Yaakov?"

A1. It is referring to the study of the Torah of the Jewish People. The reason it is called "dirt," is as follows:

⁷⁸ (וְעֵינַי מִה שֶׁנִּתְבָּאָר בְּדְבוּר הַמִּתְחִיל "כִּי תִשְׁמַע בְּקוֹל", גַּבִּי "לִשְׁמֹר אֶת כָּל מִצְוֹתָיו" (לְקַמֵּן רָאָה כּוּ, ג).)

The difference between sand and solid earth is that sand is dried out and broken down into tiny pieces, whereas solid earth has moisture that unifies the earth, forming it into a single piece. Since sand is made of tiny, separate pieces, the sand could, theoretically, be counted. However, since the solid earth is all clumped together as one solid piece, it cannot be counted, no even theoretically, since it is only one entity.

Similarly, mitzvos imply that we are separate entities from Hashem. Therefore, He is our King, Who is exalted above us and commands us, His nation, to fulfill His commands. This 'separation' from Hashem also implies separation from each other, since every one of us is being commanded separately (personally) to fulfill the mitzvos. This indicates that each individual has his own distinct importance, etc. As a result, we can be counted, since we are a nation of individuals being commanded by our King, and each individual "counts." Therefore, the total of those individuals can be counted.

However, in Torah study we experience a deeper connection to Hashem's Oneness, where we don't feel separate from Hashem at all. Unlike with regard to mitzvos, which imply two separate entities - one who is commanding, and one who is being commanded - Torah study unites us with Hashem just as His thoughts are united with him. The Torah is like a "queen" that is united with the King. By studying Torah, we also experience the higher level of Unity with Hashem.

Through this higher level of Unity that is achieved through Torah study, we leave the category of "being able to be counted" altogether, since it is like we are just a part of Hashem and there is nothing separate to be counted. This is represented by the "dirt," the solid earth that is all one mass and one continuum encompassing the entire earth.

However, to achieve this level, we first need to be like "Yaakov," who was very humble and aroused Hashem's Mercy. To experience such a high level of Unity with Hashem in our Torah study, we first need to arouse mercy from Hashem to allow our Divine soul to shine through the many concealments of the animal soul and allow us to experience the true Oneness with Hashem in Torah study.

In addition, the verse put the two concepts of Torah study (the 'dirt of Yaakov') and fulfillment of mitzvos (the 'fourth aspect of Yisrael') to tell us that only by fulfilling mitzvos properly, especially the mitzvah of tzedaka-charity/kindness, will we be able to experience the higher level of Unity of Hashem in our Torah study.

Lessons in the service of Hashem from the Maamar

- 1- The deepest possible connection to Hashem is not in the heavens; not in the spiritual realms; not in understanding; it is specifically here, in this world.

In the physical world we have the ability to reveal the deepest possible level of our Divine soul, the level of Yechida. On the level of Yechida, our connection to Hashem is not based on our external appearances, our moods, or our understanding. It is only based on an inherent connection to Hashem's Essence, which transcends all logic and explanation.

From this deep connection to Hashem, we always have the power to overcome the animal soul's desires and distractions, and to overcome his moods and explanations, since this connection to Hashem is deeper than anything that exists in the animal soul's psyche.

Even though it is ultimately the motivating force behind every mitzva we do, it is especially noticeable when we need to physically perform mitzvos despite any difficulties. This is especially true with regard to overcoming the temptations of the animal soul, which sometimes appear very difficult to overcome. When we remember that we are Jewish and have this connection to Hashem that goes beyond all explanations and is connected to our very essence, we draw strength to overcome even the most difficult of temptations or challenges.

- 2- When we fulfill any Mitzvah, we are connecting the finite world, and ourselves, to the Infinity of Hashem. Thus, every mitzva has infinite value that cannot be measured by time, energy, or money, since each and every mitzva connects us to the Infinite truth of Hashem.
- 3- When we learn Torah, we are not only fulfilling another mitzva like all other mitzvos, but we are actually becoming elevated to a different realm of existence. In Torah study, we become united with Hashem's Will and Wisdom, which is totally united with Hashem Himself. This enters us into a type of unity with Hashem in which it becomes revealed that we were never separated from Him in the first place. Even though, in physical time, we can only learn for a certain number of hours or minutes, each and every minute of Torah study connects us to a reality beyond the limitations of time and space, where there is only Hashem, and we are part of Him.

Likutay Torah English translation project:

The original text of the maamarim with נקודות and punctuation is presented side by side with a phrase-by-phrase translation and explanation. The translation of the text is in bold whereas the commentary is in regular font. The explanations of general concepts that are not directly relevant to understanding the flow of the maamar are in footnotes.

All of the commentary of the Tzemach Tzedek printed with brackets in the original Likutay Torah have been moved to the Hebrew footnotes and left untranslated.

The Goal

The main purpose of this project is to enable the reader to learn the Likutay Torah in the original. By learning the words, structure, and concepts of the maamarim, eventually they should be able to learn it by themselves in the original.

The Ma'amarim of LIKUTEI TORAH and TORAH OR are copyright by the Kehot Publication Society, a division of Merkos L'inyonei Chinuch Inc., and are reprinted here with special permission. To purchase the original visit www.Kehot.com.

I would like to thank: Kehot for permission to use the text of the maamarim, the administrator of the לקוטי תורה מנוקד project for helping with the נקודות and punctuation, to see any Maamar from Torah Or/Likutay Torah with נקודות go to his website www.ChassidutBehirah.com, to R' Baruch Katz for creating and managing the website, and Rabbi Yitzchok Miller for editing.
