HOW CAN I BE PART OF THE CONTEST?

If you are in Grades 3 – 7 and have read any of the Segments from the Live With Geulah Now! series, you can submit a project. You can access these booklets on TutAltz.com/lwgn. Haven't learned any one of the segments yet? Not to worry, they are available for FREE download!

WHAT KIND OF PROJECT CAN I ENTER INTO THE CONTEST?

You can submit any creative medium that can be shared—copied, photographed, recorded (video or audio) online by the due date to be considered by our panel of judges as one of the winning submissions.

PROJECT IDEAS: Model or diorama • Video
Comic strip • Drawing or painting • Essay
Poem or song • Storybook • Puppet Show

CAN I TEAM UP TO DO A PROJECT WITH MY FRIENDS OR SIBLINGS?

Yes, up to four children can participate in and submit a project. If your group wins a prize, you will work it out between yourselves on how to share it.

WHICH PROJECTS HAVE THE BEST CHANCE TO WIN?

Each project will be evaluated by our judges according to these three criteria:

- 1 Toichen – The message is easy to understand and the information from the curriculum is clearly included.
- 2 Creativity – The project is unique, inventive, inspiring, or fun.
- 3 Organization – The project looks neat and put together, and is age-appropriate.

The judges will take your age into account when choosing the winning projects. They will judge fairly based on the general expectations for each grade level.

HOW DO I GIVE IN MY PROJECT?

When your project is complete (see dates on the back), log onto TutAltz.com/contest with your parent or teacher's help and fill out the submission form. Be sure to attach the file (image, audio or video) with your project.

I can't wait to see them all!
