

PICTURING THE PARSHA VAYEITZEI

28:11 – Some people believe that Yaakov Avinu had his dream right here. This site is located in Beit El (about 12 miles north of Yerushalayim). Often non-Jewish conquerors would build religious monuments over known Jewish sites – look at the Har Habayis. Perhaps a chapel was built here because it was a known Jewish site.

PICTURING THE PARSHA VAYEITZEI

28:11 - View from the outside of the building that is possibly the location of where Yaakov Avinu had his dream (I only took a video; this is a screenshot).

PICTURING THE PARSHA VAYEITZEI

28:11 – The inside of the building that some people say was built over the location of where Yaakov Avinu had his dream.

PICTURING THE PARSHA VAYEITZEI

28:17 – Rashi talks about the Midrashim who say that the dream happened over Har Mariah. View of Har Mariah from Mount Scopus.

PICTURING THE PARSHA VAYEITZEI

29:1 – View from Tel Saki (about 20 miles east of Tsfas) in the Golan Heights, overlooking the Syrian border, which is just 1 mile east of it (a crucial battle in the Yom Kipper War took place here). Yaakov Avinu likely walked past this area on his travel from Beit El to Aram Naharayim.

31:21 –(Picture 1).

PICTURING THE PARSHA VAYEITZEI

31:21 – (Picture 2) I got a car ride from Tel Saki down to Tiveria. We drove by the south of the Golan Heights (about 9 miles southeast of Tiveria). The mountains in front of us (in the above pictures), which are located in Jordan, is the Gilead Area. Somewhere over there Yaakov Avinu and Lavan met and built the stone monument called Gal-Ed.